By Carole Dixon

August 27, 2015

From the man who fixes Bruce Willis' chips to the doctor who helps Johnny Depp get into character, these are the 18 dentists the A-list relies on for their perfect smiles (or a character's not-so-perfect grin).

For its second annual Doctors issue, The Hollywood Reporter surveyed 2,000 professionals in the film, television, movie, music, sports and media fields to find out who are the most beloved, trusted and go-to dentists in L.A, and these are the industry's recommendations. The below list is based solely on recommendations and has not been vetted by Castle Connolly or any other medical organization.

Bill Dorfman

2080 Century Park East Suite 1601
Los Angeles, CA 90067
855-508-6641

This high profile "dentist to the stars" can be seen as a regular on shows such as Extreme Make Over and The Doctors, and is known in the industry to be the first stop where talent can get their smiles on before they hit auditions or meetings with their managers or agents. Clients include Ozzy Osbourne and Usher - who both have "beautiful, dazzling smiles," according to the doctor; Eva Longoria, Jessica Simpson, Britney Spears, Lindsey Lohan, Kelly Osborne, Mark Wahlberg, Sir Anthony Hopkins and Niecy Nash. Dr. Dorfman is also the dentist behind Katy Perry's bejeweled million dollar grill.
